Subjective Information

Individual's report of progress towards goals/objectives since last session:

Ofd. seen for scheduled follow-up visit. He says he is doing much better with the loss of his sister. He is currently finding himself very irritable with others and getting annoyed with little things. He brought a journal with him in which he has been documenting events that trigger especially strong emotions and then writing poetry in response. He shared three of the incidents and associated poems. He also shared information about his "unhealthy sexual fantasies" involving underage girls.

New issues/stressors/extraordinary events presented today: None reported

Goals, Objectives, and Interventions Addressed Today

Interventions/Methods Provided:

Psychologist actively listened and processed the content and meaning of the poems shared. Explored themes of rejection and vulnerability with the offender. Encouraged him to continue to express himself in healthy ways such as writing. Discussed the origin of his sexual fantasies, his belief that he would never act on urges with someone underage, and his feelings of self-loathing for allowing himself to indulge in fantasies that he believes are unhealthy.

Response to Interventions/Progress Toward Goals and Objectives:

Stable, expressive, and willing to make himself vulnerable and open in therapy.
